

I am appalled that you are even considering changing current ownership rules for the broadcast media. Now more than ever we need more than one slant on the news.